

State Archives of North Carolina. Microfilm Call # S.108.160.17N, Frame 578.

Philty Rease – Wilkes (now Watauga County, NC) Entered 1787, Issued 1789 for 200 acres on the N side of the New River and the S side of Howards Creek.

State of North Carolina
No 937, File #940

Know ye that we have granted unto Philty Rease two hundred acres in Wilkes County on the North side of the New River and South side of Howard's Creek. Beginning at a white oak on Joseph Ayres line runs West with Hunts line fifty chains to a Spanish oak then North forty chains to a white oak at the creek then East down the meanders of sd creek to a stake in Ayres line. Thence South forty chains to the beginning. To hold to the said Philty Rease his heirs and ___ forever. Dated the 18th day of May 1789.

Signed S. Glasgow Secretary and Sam Johnston