

Obituary found in Sylvan Valley News June 1921

DEATH OF REV. J. V. REECE

Rev. J. V. Reece died suddenly on the morning of Wednesday, June 1 (1934) at the home of his daughter Mrs. S. M. Reece (Savannah Margaret), of North Brevard.

Although at the advanced age of 79 years, Mr. Reece was an active man and was serving as pastor of East Fork Baptist Church in Haywood County. He had recently returned from a visit in that section to the home of his daughter here, where he had been staying for some time. At the breakfast table on Wednesday morning he was seized by the sudden attack which ended fatally in a few minutes.

The body was taken to Clay County, his old home, and the burial took place on the following Saturday at Pine Log Church.

Mr. Reece had been in the ministry for forty years. The long service of the greater part of his manhood was given to the section of the state in which he was born and reared.

Besides his daughter in North Brevard, Mr. Reece is survived by three daughters in Clay County, Mrs. Julia Rogers, Mrs. Ellen Reece, and Mrs. Lillie Waldrop; three sons also of Clay, Theodore, Joe, Charley and Cas Reece; and one daughter in Haywood County, Mrs. Annie Sharp.

DEATH OF REV. J. V. REECE

Rev. J. V. Reece died suddenly on the morning of Wednesday, June 1, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. M. Reece, of North Brevard.

Although at the advanced age of 79 years, Mr. Reece was an active man and was serving as pastor of East Fork Baptist Church in Haywood county. He had recently returned from a visit in that section to the home of his daughter here, where he had been staying for some time. At the breakfast table on Wednesday morning he was seized by the sudden attack which ended fatally in a few minutes.

The body was taken to Clay County his old home, and the burial took place on the following Saturday at Pine Log Church.

Mr. Reece had been in the ministry for forty years. The long service of the greater part of his manhood was given to the section of the state in which he was born and reared.

Besides his daughter in North Brevard, Mr. Reece is survived by three daughters in Clay County, Mrs. Julia Rogers, Mrs. Ellen Reece, and Mrs. Lillie Waldrop; three sons also of Clay, Theodore, Joe, Charley and Cas Reece; and one daughter in Haywood County, Mrs. Annie Sharp.